

Consumers Affairs Department Celebrate: World Consumer Rights Day

Theme “Making Digital Market Places Fairer” Shri Ram Vilas Paswan to inaugurate celebration of world consumer rights day on 15th march, 2018

Preeti Rawat

New Delhi

This year department of consumer affairs is celebrating the world consumer rights day with the theme “Making Digital Market Places Fairer” in New Delhi on 15th March, 2018. Programmed will be inaugurated by Shri Ram Vilas Paswan, Union Minister of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and will be honor by Shri CR Chaudhary, Minister of State for Consumer affairs Food & Public Distribution and Commerce. Shri Gulshan Rai speaker of the occasion who is chief security information adviser in PMO The event will be attended by Ministers and Secretaries in charge of Consumer Affairs in the States, Secretaries in Central Ministries and Regulators, Members of Parliament, members of CCPC, Officers in the Central Government, and representatives from Industry, Media and Voluntary Consumer Organizations. The discussion on the theme which is high on the agenda of the event “Making Digital Market Places Fairer” which has become an important issue in international fora currently. This event represents celebration and solidarity in the international consumer movement, demanding that, consumer rights are to be respected and protected. World

Consumer Rights Day is an annual international event. The occasion also gives a possibility to protest against the market abuses and social injustice which disable those rights. Every year, World Consumer Rights Day adopts a theme to highlight. This year the theme promoted is “Making Digital Marketplaces Fairer”.